Fill out the enclosed reservation form and mail it with payment to

HST/LWVH Flea Market

PO Box 450

Harvard, MA 01451

- Reservation fee is $75 per booth, maximum two booths.
- Reservation request must be accompanied by booth fee (non-refundable). If booth space is exhausted, fee will be returned immediately.
- All booths are outdoors and are 20 feet by 20 feet. Tables are not available. Electricity is not available.
- Booths will be assigned on a first come, first served basis. Requests for specific booth locations cannot be guaranteed.
- Confirmation, including four complimentary admission tickets, will be mailed by September 20.
- The event may be postponed or cancelled if the field is too wet, even if rain has stopped. Because the field is on town-owned property, organizers must abide by the wishes of the town of Harvard.
- The Flea Market sponsors reserve the right to prohibit the sale of dangerous or offensive materials, or of any items causing immediate litter.
- Boothholders must agree to vacate the field, leaving no items or trash behind, by no later than 5 p.m. on the day of the Flea Market.

I agree to vacate the field, leaving no items or trash behind, by no later than 5 p.m. on the day of the event.
(We cannot process your application unless you have checked this box.)

I'm selling only food and/or drinks, and I'd like to be located in or near the "food court" area.

NOTE!

- If your cooking/serving area is greater than 20 feet by 20 feet (the standard booth size), you must rent two booths.
- If you bring a generator or any other equipment that produces noise or odor, you may be moved to an alternate location.

I can't take a booth this year, but I've enclosed a contribution to the HST/LWVH.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts requires the following information. _____

We cannot reserve booth space without it.

I am a casual vendor (only once a year) not regularly engaged in retail sales.

I am a vendor at flea markets, antique or craft shows, or other such events more than once a year.
